When to start the search for Assisted Living?

At some point in your life journey, you may need a professional partner. If you can answer "yes" to any of these questions, it may be time to see if assisted living can help.

- Suffer from limited mobility or are at risk for falling?
- Find that health issues make cooking, cleaning and laundry a burden?
- No longer drive, have limited access to public transportation?
- Spend most time alone?
- Need limited care after suffering from an illness or injury, or while recuperating from surgery?
- Forget to take medications?
- Have a history of numerous hospital stays in the past year?

Community Happenings

In honor of Older American's Month in May, Fountainview Estates and Area Agency on Aging partnered to host a Senior Reception at Good Shepherd Institute for Healthy Living honoring all Seniors in our community. Food, Fun, and a video on Age of Champions (Senior Olympics) was enjoyed.

Lunch & Learn

Fountainview Estates hosted a Lunch & Learn at Johnny Cace's Restaurant and had 15 in attendance to learn more about our wonderful community. We will be hosting a second Lunch & Learn in July at Olive Garden. If any families or friends would like to attend, please have them telephone Julie Rucker at 903-736-2773. This is a wonderful opportunity to share good food and information about our new community.

Alzheimer's Association Day Club

Fountainview Estates was honored to provide lunch for the Alzheimer's Association Day Club, Unforgettable Tuesday, volunteers at their annual training. This is a wonderful group of volunteers that give so much of their time and energy to providing a respite, every Tuesday, to people experiencing dementia. The day consists of fun and activities with contented engagement as well as a delicious lunch and snacks. If you would like to know more about this, please contact Julie Rucker at 903-736-2773.

Fountainview Estates is always honored to be giving back to our community in meaningful ways. Please let us know if there is any program you are interested in that we can partner with. Your interest, is our interest!

Building and Beyond

Fountainview Estates construction is coming along with great speed. If you have a chance to drive by the site, please do and see your beautiful home taking shape. How exciting is it for us to watch our progress and see it all come together? We are looking forward to those morning coffees on our beautiful waterfront terrace with each of you.
